Reimbursement:

Since the start of the new program Erasmus+, the European Commission uses a different system of travel cost refunding... The 70 percent refund of the real cost is no longer the rule...

From now on the refund is done by Lump sums, according the distance of your home to the (applied) venue.

The exact distance category you belong to can be calculated by the official European Commission distance calculator.

This is the link to the tool:

http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/tools/distance_en.htm

According to the rules of ERASMUS+ program, and in order to comply with environmental standards, we kindly ask you to take the most environmental friendly and cost effective alternative available to you.

Don't lose your boarding passes, otherwise your costs will not be reimbursed.

! Note: If you have paid for your ticket with a credit card, you are requested to bring along the confirmation of payment (i.e. credit card slip and/or bank statement).

Travelling to Georgia:

None of the participant countries need visa for Georgia, so you don't have to worry about it!

All participants will be met at the airport and will be taken to Bakuriani by bus. We strongly recommend you to have a flight to Tbilisi or Kutaisi airport. Tickets are cheaper to Kutaisi than to capital city. So all participants will be picked up from airports to Bakuriani.

! Note: Although you can plan your travel individually and arrive earlier/depart later, the organisers can only commit to reimburse and organise your board and lodging during the mentioned training days.

!! Note: Please DO reserve the tickets, but DO NOT buy them before consulting with us.
